CHAT OF PEOPLE AND EVENTS.

The Marriage of Mrs. Bessie Lanier Brown to Mr. Burton L. Lincoln.

The marriage of Mrs. Bessie Lanier Brown to Mr. Burton L. Lincoln is announced to take place in Chicago on Monday, the twenty-seventh, at high noon, and will be an event claiming in large measure the interest and good wishes of countless friends here. Mrs. Brown is the daughter of the late Dr. Emmet Lanier of this city, and is an unusually charming woman, to whom there has come a rich share of personal graces. She has spent the past two years in the west, and her return to this, her old home, as the bride of a popular Columbian, will give pleasure to many who know and admire her. Mr. Lincoln is a prominent young business man, whose record, both as an official of the county administration and in the city council, bears evidence of his ability and sterling qualities. He is the son of Col. C. L. Lincoln, a leading member of the bar, for a number of years clerk of the Chancery Court and conspicuous in the military affairs of the State. The wedding will be a quiet one, celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis in Chicago.

Miss Worthington to Conduct European Party this Season.

Miss Jennie Worthington, who has been associated with the Temple Tours for several summers, and has been so successful as chaperon and art specialist in interesting journeys to the Old World, will sail in June for her fifth visit to Europe and will be accompanied by an attractive party. The trip has been delightfully arranged, with opportunities to linger, beyond the usual tourists' limit, in historic places, and to enjoy little excursions here and there. Among those who will join Miss Worthington in these rare days of wandering are: Mrs. Gessner Tutwiler Smith, Miss Alma Hills, Miss May Jones of the College Faculty, Mrs. Yeager of Mobile, Miss Willing, Miss Adams of Jackson, Miss Elvira Newby, Mr. Paul Smith and others.

Contest at the Franklin Academy Friday.

The representatives of the Franklin Academy at the High School Contest in Tupelo next week were chosen by a preliminary contest Friday morning. The occasion in its entirety deserves warmest praise, and each contestant bore away honors, so that it became difficult to single out the pupils upon whom special favor must rest. The judges' decisions finally brought to the following students the compliment of representing Columbus at the forthcoming meeting. In elocution, Miss Mamie Liss Savage first, Miss Miriam Sykes, alternate. In music, Miss Helen Hampton, first, Miss Frances Dashed, alternate. In declamation, Mr. James Hewlett, first, Mr. Selwyn Tennison, alternate. The afternoon was devoted to an athletic contest, the winners of the various events also going to Tupelo to compete for prizes. It is hoped that fair fortune and the best of luck will attend them and abundant trophies will become souvenirs of the visit.

Col. Albet Rhett Elmore of Jacksonville, Fla., who was called here by the sad death of Mr. William L. Gardner, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hairston. Mrs. Gardner is for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gardner on Third Avenue North.

Miss Frances Connolly of Atlanta is expected this afternoon for a few days' visit to Mrs. E. G. McCabe. Miss Connolly is a granddaughter of Gov. Joe Brown, the celebrated war governor of Georgia, and a statesman distinguished in its history.

An embroidery class for the little folks is an innovation that will bring an exceptional opportunity to the children to acquire knowledge of a pretty art. Such a class will be inaugurated at the Woman's Exchange this week and those who desire to join will call at the Exchange Rooms Wednesday afternoon to register and receive the necessary information.

Truck Growers' Meet.
There was a meeting of the Lowndes County Truck Growers' Association at the city hall yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called for the purpose of making arrangements for the shipment of vegetables which have been grown by members of the association. Mr. E. B. Blair, commercial agent of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, and Mr. Joseph D. Barry, representative of the Armour Refrigerator Car Lines, were present, and gave the truckers some valuable information concerning rates and other shipping details. Only a few car loads of vegetables will be shipped from Columbus this season, but the truckers will plant on a larger scale next year, and expect to increase their shipments from season to season.

Blind Tiger on Train.

Since prohibition laws have gone into effect in many states throughout the South news butchers on railway trains have found the selling of liquor a very profitable business, and many of them have carried liquor as a "side line." C. W. Stanley, a news butcher running on the Montgomery division of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, has been dispensing booze pretty freely, and when a trip to this effect was given local officers they proceeded to get busy. Stanley was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ryland Prowell and Constable Loftis last Thursday, and was taken before Justice of the Peace J. B. Prowell, of the Fifth district, in which district the specific violation of the law with which the man was charged took place, and upon conviction was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and serve ninety days on the county farm. The penal sentence was held up pending future good behavior, and if Stanley unwaveringly follows the straight and narrow path he will not be required to don the stripes of a convict.

"Carnation Day" at Street's Soda Fountain next Thursday. Ask about it.

Cumberland Presbyterian Revival.

The revival meeting which began at the Cumberland Presbyterian church last Sunday is growing in interest each day, and will be continued throughout the coming week. The meeting is being conducted by Dr. J. H. Kendrick, a well known evangelist who has accomplished fine work in many Southern states, and whose sermons here have delighted all who heard them. Dr. Kendrick has been joined by Rev. Jno. R. Morris, of Dallas, Texas, who will have charge of the music during the remainder of the meeting. Mr. Morris has had ten years' experience in work of this character, and is said to be an unusually capable and successful director of music. A fine choir has been organized, and all persons possessed of vocal talent are extended a cordial invitation to join this choir.

There will be the usual services at 11 o'clock this morning and eight o'clock this evening, while during the week services will be held at 3:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Rev. T. B. Nations, the pastor of the church, extends to the public a cordial invitation to attend all services.

Special Purchase of Lingerie and Embroidered Waists

Pretty? Irresistibly so! Well made—perfect in every detail. Stylish? Supremely so! Low priced? Never offered such waist bargains.

We bought these at a bargain price direct from the maker. We consider him the best waist maker in the world. If there is another man who can turn out waists as good as his, he isn't making waists at the present time.

And we bought them—they won't cost you much, as you get the benefit of the remarkable low purchasing price.

Special Purchase of Kimonos and Dressing Sacques 25c to $2.00

Big Bargains in Skirts

We were approached some ten days ago with some samples of very fine skirts, at remarkably low prices. The lot consisted of a surplus stock of a well known skirt maker.

We thought there must be a mistake in the price, but took a chance and placed the order. To our surprise the skirts came, smart, natty, perfectly tailored skirts—perfect as good skirts can be.

SO HERE'S A SNAP—

Looks like somebody made a mistake, but don't you repeat it by coming when the stock is depleted.

TO THE OWNERS OF REAL ESTATE

For the past few months the real estate market in Columbus has been a little quiet, but I have recently had a number of inquiries from out-of-town people who contemplate moving to Columbus and wish to buy homes and business property. If you have any property of either class and will let it with me I can in all probability find you a buyer.

I have several nice cottages for rent, a majority of them desirably located.

I also have for sale all kinds of insurance, and will be pleased to give you rates on application.
